Safari jackets with multiple pockets never go out of style because they're so practical for any type of travel. This lightweight Anatomie Kenya Safari Jacket is a revolutionary update on the classic that turns ordinary into stylish. Made of a light, stretchy material, it's tapered at the waist for a flattering and feminine look. It still has all the pockets any traveler needs to stow her valuables, including zippered ones for added security. The easy-to-pack and easy-to-wear fabric is moisture-wicking, wrinkle-free and offers 50+ UPF protection. The garment comes in khaki (shown) as well as black, navy and gray and pairs perfectly with pants in the same line.
